Henry Owen Memorial Award 2020 Winners Announced

Bretton Woods Committee () | Fri, Apr 17, 2020

The Henry Owen Memorial Award honors Bretton Woods Committee co-founder Henry Owen, and hopes to inspire new generations of thoughtful young leaders to follow Ambassador Owen's example as both a scholar and diplomat. This Award has been made possible thanks to the generous contributions of Bretton Woods Committee members, friends, and the Owen family.

For this year's Henry Owen Memorial Award essay contest graduate students were asked how global coordination and effective multilateral governance can push back against global fragmentation.

The First Place winning essay - Fragmented Governance: How Multilateralism Can Be Saved - was authored by Peter Whiteneck, a M.A. candidate at American University School of International Service. Read the essay
